* THIS NOTICE MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY ****

To: All current and former female employees of the City of Albuquerque, excluding police officers, police service aides, cadets in the Albuquerque Police Academy, and women employed by the Albuquerque Fire Department (“the Class”).

Re: Collective action lawsuit against the City of Albuquerque for violations of the New Mexico Fair Pay for Women Act.

The purpose of this notice is to inform all current and former female employees of the City of Albuquerque that a collective action lawsuit has been filed against the City of Albuquerque pursuant to the New Mexico Fair Pay for Women Act seeking equivalent pay and other benefits for female employees who worked for the City of Albuquerque from May 9, 2013 until July 23, 2020, and were paid less than men for the same work. Excluded from the collective action are police officers, police service aides, cadets in the Albuquerque Police Academy, and women employed by the Albuquerque Fire Department. A description of your rights and the instructions as to how you can participate in this lawsuit and place a claim for payment of back wages and other benefits follows.

1. WHAT THE LAWSUIT IS ABOUT

The Plaintiffs are female City of Albuquerque employees. They have filed this lawsuit seeking to recover the difference between the amount of pay they received and the amount men were paid for the same work (grade) and to ensure their benefits, such as retirement and overtime pay, are based on the amount they should have been lawfully paid. Plaintiffs claim that they, and other graded female employees of the City of Albuquerque, were paid less than men who worked the same job in violation of statutory requirements.

For more information, consult the website www.pinoclass.com.

2. WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN THIS LAWSUIT

Any female employee who works, or worked for the City of Albuquerque any time from May 9, 2013 to July 23, 2020, and were paid less than men for the same work can join in this lawsuit. You can join the lawsuit even if you no longer work for the City of Albuquerque. Police officers, police service aides, cadets in the Albuquerque Police Academy, and women employed by the Albuquerque Fire Department may not join the lawsuit.
